GRANDPARENT SCAM ALERT

WHAT IS THE SCAM?

Scammers are calling seniors claiming to be family members in need of immediate money for bail or hospital expenses.

The scammer will often send someone to the door to pick up payment.

BAIL FACTS:

- Police, lawyers, judges or jails do not call people to get money.
- Bail/ fines are typically paid at a courthouse, police station or jail.
- Bail in Alberta is typically $10-$500.
- Bail can't be paid using gift cards.

"Court appointed" couriers don't exist. If someone asks to come to your home to pick up payment, it's a scam.

If it has to be now, it has to be no. Using fear or high-pressure tactics are usually a red flag.

Always ask for proof of identification and call-back numbers. Talk to family, friends or other people you trust to help verify claims or requests.

CALGARY POLICE SERVICE

If you have lost money or the scam is in progress, contact the Calgary Police Service at 403-266-1234

To report a scam in general, contact the Canadian Anti-Fraud Centre at 1-888-495-8501

Winter Parking Choices Matter Around Schools

As days get shorter and winter conditions arrive, visibility around schools becomes even more important. Snowbanks, early darkness, and icy roads can make it harder to see children crossing streets. Parking rules help reduce these risks by keeping corners, crosswalks, and sidewalks clear. Parking too close to intersections or in prohibited areas can further limit sightlines when visibility is already reduced. Choosing safe, legal parking options and allowing extra time during winter conditions helps protect students and families during the busiest parts of the school day. Learn more: calgaryparking.com/safeschools.

Can You See? Winter Conditions can Make School Areas Harder to Navigate

When visibility is reduced, small parking choices can make a big difference near schools. Shorter days, snow, ice, and changing weather can make it harder for children and drivers to see each other. School areas remain busy during drop-off and pick-up times, with children and families walking, wheeling, cycling, taking the bus, and driving. When vehicles stop or park in the wrong place, they can block sightlines at crosswalks, corners, sidewalks, driveways, bus zones, and school entrances. Even a quick stop can make it harder for children, families and drivers to see one another clearly.

The Calgary Parking School Patrol Program helps support safer school journeys throughout the school year. Parking Safety and Compliance Officers visit school areas where there are recurring parking or stopping concerns. They focus on education, reminders, and visibility. Enforcement may be used when unsafe parking continues or creates a safety or access issue.

Drivers can help by slowing down, leaving extra travel time, and choosing a safe, legal place to stop or park. Sometimes the safest choice is parking a little farther away and walking the remaining distance. Keeping crossings, corners, and travel lanes clear helps everyone move more safely. Before stopping near a school, ask yourself a simple question: Can children and drivers see each other clearly?

Students can help make school journeys safer by entering the Travel Safe Student Video Contest Parking category. Students are encouraged to submit creative video ideas that show how safe parking choices help everyone travel to and from school. Learn more about school-area safety and the Travel Safe Student Video Contest at CalgaryParking.com/SafeSchools.

Create More Memories and Less Waste this Holiday Season

The best holiday memories aren't found under the tree. They're made with the people we spend time with.

During the holidays, Calgarians generate about 25% more waste from wrapping paper, packaging, and leftover food. As you get ready for the season, here are a few simple ways to create more memories and less waste:

- Gift experiences instead of things, like tickets, memberships or a day out together.
- Make a gift with a personal touch, such as homemade cookies, a photo book or a handmade gift.
- Shop locally to reduce shipping materials and packaging waste.
- Borrow, swap or share decorations with neighbours, friends or family.
- Reuse gift bags and bows or wrap gifts with fabric.
- Stick to a grocery list, use leftovers or send extras home with guests.

For more holiday waste reduction tips, visit calgary.ca/our-city/articles/calgary-conversations-podcast-015-howland-wark.html.

Aquatic Centre Survey

You may have recently heard that the City has extended the hours for the Inglewood Aquatic Centre. With those extended hours, we have 9 months from Oct. 1 to increase the usage to target levels. We appreciate the increased hours, but are concerned the current programs offered do not sufficiently address the needs of the local and broader Calgary swimming communities. Below is a QR code link to a survey to gather input about current and desired usage of the Inglewood Aquatic Centre. Our intent is to use this information to inform conversations with City staff towards future program and scheduling changes. There are no guarantees that any specific changes will be made, but this will give us a better understanding of what people want.

Thank you for taking the time to respond to this survey. Your input is appreciated.

Did you know? Chrysanthemums are November's birth flower—but some varieties are more than decorative! Certain chrysanthemum flowers and leaves are edible, and chrysanthemum tea, made by steeping the dried flowers, is a traditional beverage enjoyed across parts of East Asia.

Double Baked Sweet Potato Casserole

by S. Law

As fall approaches, I find myself spending more and more time in the kitchen. As such, there are always a few new recipes I end up trying before winter hits. The most recent would be this recipe for a double baked sweet potato casserole requested to me by a friend. Full of warm spices and the perfect balance between sweet and savoury, this dish is sure to be a crowd pleaser at your next family gathering.

Ingredients

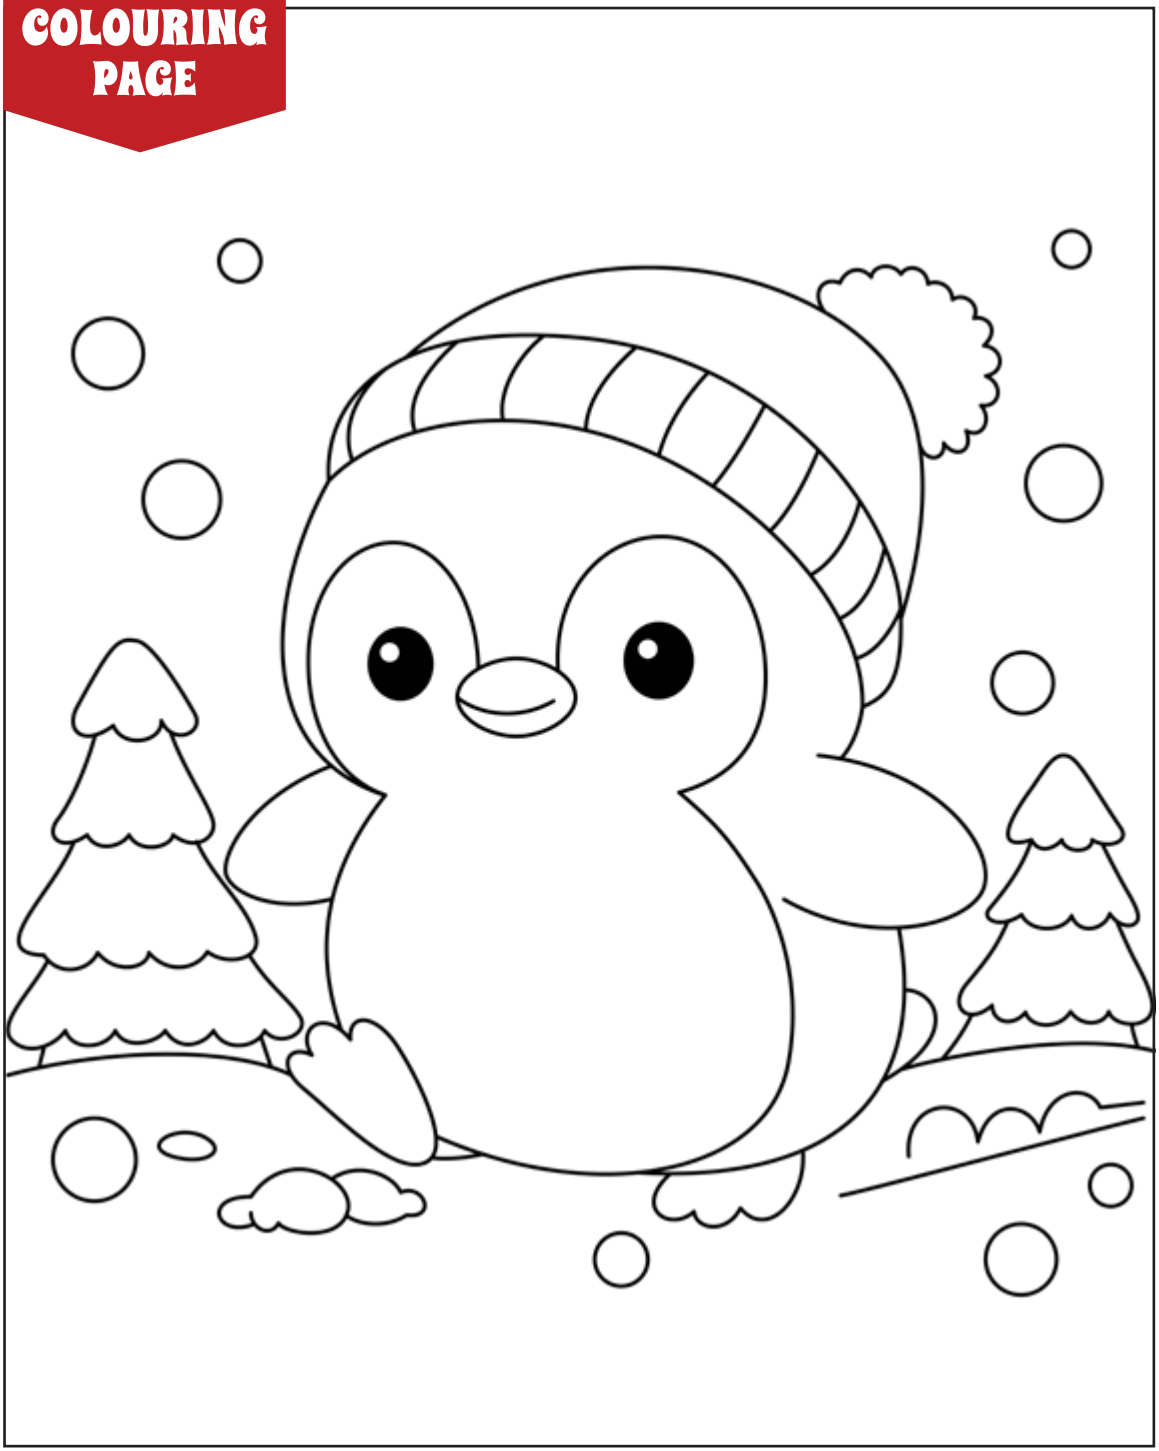

- 5 to 7 medium sweet potatoes
- 1/4 cup butter, cut into small cubes
- 1 egg
- 1/2 tbsp cinnamon
- ½ tbsp nutmeg
- 3 tbsps maple syrup
- ½ tbsp ground cloves
- ½ tbsp ground ginger
- Salt to taste
- 2 cups mini marshmallows (optional)

Directions

1. Begin by peeling and roughly chopping your sweet potatoes. Boil them in a large pot until they are soft enough to mash.
2. Drain the chunks and add them into a glass casserole dish with your butter and egg.
3. Mash the chucks while evenly incorporating the other ingredients. You want everything to be mixed in with no large clumps.
4. Add all your spices and incorporate fully.
5. Put the dish in a 450° F oven and cook for about 35 minutes, or until the top begins to brown slightly.
6. In the last 15 minutes, if you would like to cover the top in mini marshmallows, and place the entire thing back in the over, it does add a little extra sweetness, but it isn't required.
7. Once it's cooked, serve warm and enjoy with family and friends.

Yielding to Emergency Vehicles

by Alberta Health Services

For everyone's safety, it is important motorists understand how to correctly yield right-of-way to emergency vehicles when their lights and sirens are activated. You can help all first responders navigate roads quickly and safely by following these basic rules.

When an Emergency Vehicle Approaches with Lights and Sirens Activated:

- If you're in the middle of an intersection, safely clear the intersection and then pull over to the right curb.
- On a one or two-lane road, motorists should move to the right side of the road, slow down, and then stop, remaining parallel with the road. Remember to signal.
- On one-way streets move to the nearest curb, either the right or left, and stop.
- On a road with three or more lanes, motorists should move to the nearest side of the road and stop. If driving in the centre lane, move to the right side of the road and stop. Remember to signal.
- Come to a complete stop and wait for the emergency vehicle to pass. Shoulder check for more emergency vehicles before re-entering traffic flow. Remember to signal.
- Emergency vehicles might use any available road space to maneuver. This could include shoulders or turning lanes, etc., in order to safely pass other traffic.

When Operating a Vehicle:

- Reduce speed to 60 km/h or the posted speed, whichever is lower, when passing any stopped roadside vehicle with flashing lights (emergency vehicles, tow trucks, maintenance trucks, etc.). This law applies to the lane immediately next to the stopped vehicles. If you're not in the lane next to the stopped vehicles, it's recommended to reduce speed and leave lots of space between yourself and emergency personnel.
- Do not break the rules of the road in order to give right of way to an emergency vehicle. This could include proceeding through a red light or making an illegal turn. Actions such as these jeopardize all motorists in the area.
- Drivers must place their full attention on the road and the safe operation of their vehicle at all times. The fine for distracted driving in Alberta is $390.00 and three demerit points.
- Do not follow within 150meters of an emergency vehicle with its siren and/or flashing lights on. For reference, 150m is nearly 1.5 times the length of a football field.

Healthy Conflict: Why Children Need to See Us Work Through Our Differences

by Nancy Bergeron, R.Psych | info@nancybergeron.ca

Many parents worry about arguing in front of their children. They may believe that being good parents means keeping disagreements private and presenting a picture of a relationship where everyone gets along. However, healthy relationships are not conflict-free relationships.

Children benefit from seeing that two people can disagree, experience difficult emotions, and still remain connected. When handled respectfully, conflict can become an opportunity to teach children some of life's most important relationship skills.

What does healthy conflict look like?

Healthy conflict isn't about never becoming frustrated. It is about learning what we do with that frustration. Healthy conflict might sound like:

"I'm feeling frustrated right now. I need a few minutes before we continue this conversation."

"I see this differently, but I want to understand your perspective."

"I don't agree with you, but I can understand why you feel that way."

"I didn't handle that well. I'm sorry."

"Let's figure out what we can do differently next time."

Children who hear these kinds of conversations learn that disagreement doesn't automatically mean rejection, abandonment, or the end of a relationship.

Children need to see repair

One of the most important things children can witness is what happens after conflict.

Parents sometimes lose their patience. They may misunderstand one another, become defensive, or say something they regret. What matters most is what happens next.

When children see a parent return to the conversation, take responsibility, apologize, listen, and reconnect, they learn that relationships can survive difficult moments.

This is a powerful lesson in resilience. The message becomes:

"We can have a hard moment and find our way back to one another."

Conflict can teach emotional regulation. Children learn emotional regulation partly through observing the adults around them.

When parents demonstrate that strong emotions can be acknowledged without becoming destructive, children are given a model for managing their own feelings.

They learn that being angry doesn't mean they have permission to hurt someone. Being disappointed doesn't mean they have to withdraw completely. And being upset doesn't mean the relationship is no longer safe.

Parents can model that it is possible to pause, calm down, return to a difficult conversation, and work toward understanding.

What children shouldn't have to witness

Healthy conflict is very different from destructive conflict. Children should not be placed in the middle of adult disagreements or exposed to intimidation, threats, humiliation, contempt, physical aggression, or ongoing hostile conflict.

They should not be expected to take sides, carry messages between parents, or become responsible for repairing the relationship.

There are also circumstances where safety must come first. When there is violence, coercive control, or fear within a relationship, the goal is not simply to teach children how to witness conflict differently. The focus needs to be on safety and appropriate professional support.

Your children don't need to see a perfect relationship

When parents demonstrate respectful disagreement and genuine repair, children learn that relationships require communication, accountability, patience, and forgiveness.

They learn that conflict is something we can work through, not something we have to fear.

New Abilities

by Michelle Macdonald, Letter Writing and Mail Club Enthusiast.

If you could wake up tomorrow with the ability to do something new, what would it be? What if it were a completely far-fetched or magical skill? How would you use it, and where would it take you?

Dear reader,

Considering magically gaining a skill overnight made me think of many potential scenarios. One of the first things that came to me was having unlimited home and car maintenance skills because I would be able to use them frequently to support my family. However, when I thought about it, I realized I would not want to spend my time on those tasks because they are messy, time-consuming, and often done alone.

I would want a skill that is more social and homes in on my interests. So, I thought about what I've been attracted to learning in the past. One skill I've worked on for many years is speaking Spanish. It's been an on-and-off process since my twenties, and I'm still at the intermediate level. This gets me by when I'm traveling, but I've always felt frustrated not being fluent because it holds me back from fully expressing myself or truly understanding the people I meet. Wouldn't it be wonderful to communicate effortlessly in another language and just say what's on your mind?

Since we're considering magically gained abilities, I'd take it a step further than fluency in Spanish; I'd wake up ready to communicate in any language. Imagine the opportunities it would open up! I could use multilingualism to immerse myself entirely in any place and culture.

I absolutely love to travel. I find it's the best way to learn and gain new perspectives. The more different the destination from my home, the more it opens my mind. Being able to speak the local language would vastly improve my understanding of things I'm curious about: history, politics, geography, regional customs, and culture. Reading about these things in books or watching videos online can never match the insights gained by speaking directly with people who have lived the history and experience its culture every day.

My magical language skills could be used for a greater purpose: recording endangered languages before they disappear, deciphering ancient manuscripts or petroglyphs, and even collecting valuable international intelligence. The possibilities feel endless!

Your turn! If you could wake up tomorrow with a new skill, what would it be? Write in your journal or to your pen pal.

Happy writing,

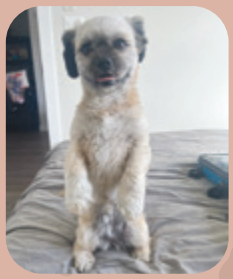

Michelle

A Flower to Remember

Red poppy seeds can remain dormant in the soil for years. During the First World War, artillery and trench warfare disturbed the earth along the Western Front, allowing poppies to bloom across the landscape. The sight inspired Canadian Lieutenant-Colonel John McCrae's 1915 poem "In Flanders Fields", helping the red poppy become an enduring symbol of remembrance.
